

Visiting Professor / Visiting Assistant Professor

The Health Economics and HIV and AIDS Research Division (HEARD), based the University of KwaZulu-Natal is a regional and global leader for applied research and policy development on critical health and development challenges for the African continent. Our aim is to shape public health policy and practice in order to reduce health inequalities in Africa and to improve reach, the comprehensiveness and quality of health services delivery throughout the region.

HEARD invites applications for a one-year position (2018 academic year) as Visiting Professor / Visiting Assistant Professor in any of the following areas:

- The Future Health Financing in Eastern and Southern Africa
- Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights
- Universal Health Coverage
- HIV Prevention
- Gender-based Violence and Health.

We are seeking to appoint two candidates from the list to engage in research likely to enhance HEARD's ambition to become a National Research Foundation rated Centre of Excellence by 2020.

Successful candidates will:

- Hold a PhD in any area of Global Health
- Be a full Professor and;
- Have a demonstrable research profile at the highest level.

Successful candidates will be expected to pursue:

- A defined programme of research
- Co-author, with HEARD researchers, at least two articles in high-impact journals and;
- Contribute to HEARD's PhD Scholarship Programme.

We can offer a remuneration of up to USD$20.000, which can be used to supplement existing funding sources (e.g. sabbaticals).

Applications should include:

- A CV
- The names and contact details of three referees
- A letter of application (2 pages), including a discussion of the research to be pursued
- Ideas related to the integration of the research theme into the main research areas of HEARD are also welcome.

Advantageous: Experience of Research Council grant acquisition will be highly valued.

Inquiries and applications by email are preferred. Applicants should submit, by February 26, 2018 to HEARDresearch@ukzn.ac.za.